CHICAGO BANKER'S HOME UNDER GUARD

Charles G. Dawes, Who Faced Loan to Allen, Threatened in Letters.

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Two guards are on duty to-day outside the residence of Charles G. Dawes, President of the Central Trust Company of Chicago, the first Chicago banker to announce the intention of removing his family to the city. The guards were sent there on the instruction of Mr. Dawes' friends after they had learned of the receipt of several letters. One, which the banker exhibited, is apparently a notice of the police was signed. There was also an effort to have the usual guard of police at the bank increased, but Mr. Dawes got his feet down first.

BRIDE WHOSE ROMANCE BEGAN WHEN WILSON WAS INAUGURATED

McConnell of Adrian, Mich., becomes the bride of Wallace Donald McLean. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William McConnell, who are well known in both Washington and New York. Mr. McLean is a friend of President Wilson and studied under the latter's direction at Princeton. He was an active figure in the Wilson campaign. The bride will give a dinner to-night to the wedding guests and attendants. Following a wedding tour the couple will live at Bronxville.

Don't Discard Last Season's Furs
True, fashions in fur have changed—but Macy's Fur Repair Department can remodel your fur to closely resemble the latest word from Paris that the transformation will delight you. So will the cost—for our rates are the "Lowest-in-the-City."
Macy's—Third Floor.

Don't Wait for Sales! Come to Macy's
There's the solution! Why worry about getting along with the old things until some store has a sale? Get things when you need them—and pay just a little.
People who come to Macy's know that the "sale" prices of most other stores are every-day prices here.
Reflect a little and you'll see why. You and every one else can only buy for CASH at this store—hence Macy's always has money ready to buy.
And when a store's "Yes" to any good offer means "cash in hand" to manufacturers—who get the best offers first.
Not stores that must buy on credit—because their patrons don't pay cash!
Macy's duty has better opportunities than the "windfalls" that come a few times a year to stores operated on a credit basis.
That's the secret—and the proof is simple comparison. Prove it to-day or to-morrow—and profit by the proof!

The Sale of Quality Rugs and Carpets Continues

WE expected that this would be a big sale in every sense of the word, but we did not anticipate such vast selling as has been the rule since this sale began. We have just replenished our stock with hundreds of rugs of exceptional quality, for we are now determined to break all records in New York City for economically selling fine rugs and carpets.

The prices on the three grades of Wilton rugs here announced will convey a fair idea of the advantage of buying now—at Macy's. You cannot fail to be impressed by the lowness of these prices on rugs of this size and quality.

As an illustration of the value of these rugs—this grade in the 9x12 ft. size is sold at its standard price in 8 other stores at $85.00 (verified), and is considered a good value at that price. The savings on this size, therefore, is $15.25. The savings on other sizes are proportionate.
